

REQUIREMENTS FOR WRITTEN PAPERS

Written Papers should:

1. Be supervised by a profesor,
2. Be 6 to 12 pages in length (between 2500 and 7000 words),
3. Be delivered orally at the UNIV Forum in 10-12 minutes,
4. Language: Presentations may be written in English, Spanish, Italian, French, German or Portuguese. The oral presentation (and the PowerPoint) should be in Spanish or English.

AWARDS AND PUBLICATION OF PRESENTATIONS

All presentations will be evaluated by the UNIV Forum Scientific Committee. A variety of awards will be granted to the best presentations and some will also be published on the web in UNIV Forum Presentations, a PDF book. UNIV Forum Presentations will have a permanent link, for convenient reference in your cv.

EVALUATION

The Committee principally evaluates the projects as attempts by undergraduate students to confront the dilemmas and problems in the world in which they live, but it will also judge them according to the standards and methods of academic research.

Some especially valued points are:

1. Formal Aspects: style and correctness, method, presentation quality, etc.
2. Content: strength of argument, relevance and value, originality of topic, etc.
3. Proposed solutions: coherence between the conclusions reached, the objectives proposed, and the method used; a positive tone; practical proposals for solving the problem or problems discussed, etc.

Every participant will receive a certificate testifying to their attendance and specific contribution to the Forum.
